

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 23, 2009

Morris, Haynes & Hornsby Named One of Birmingham's Best Places to Work 2009

Morris, Haynes & Hornsby has been named one of Birmingham's Best Places to Work by the Birmingham Business Journal. The firm was honored in the September 11, 2009 edition of the Birmingham Business Journal as one of the Best Places to Work in Birmingham. (Click here to read profile of MHH from the Birmingham Business Journal) Morris, Haynes & Hornsby employees at both the Birmingham and Alexander City offices completed workplace satisfaction surveys conducted by Quantum Workplace in order to qualify as a nominee one of Birmingham's Best Places to Work 2009. The companies with the highest scores on the survey were selected as Best Places to Work.

The firm ranked 15th overall out of the 30 companies that were selected; and ranked 9th within its category of companies with 1 – 51 employees. There was a luncheon honoring the 2009 Best Places to Work held on September 10, 2009 at the Sheraton Birmingham Hotel in downtown Birmingham. Attending on behalf of Morris, Haynes and Hornsby were Tommy James, Lauren Carlisle, Christine Simpson and Iralyn Franklin. (Click here to see picture from the luncheon) For the profile of the firm that appeared in the Birmingham Business Journal, partner Clay Hornsby was interviewed and attorney Nancy Eady was quoted, both describing why Morris, Haynes and Hornsby is such a great place to work.

For more information contact Iralyn Franklin at 205-324-4008 or ifranklin@mhhlaw.net.